2020 Assumption of Risk of Domestic Animal Activity

Under Kansas law, there is no liability for an injury to or the death of a participant in domestic animal activities resulting from the inherent risks of domestic animal activities, pursuant to K.S.A. 60-4001 through 60-4004. You are assuming the risk of participating in this domestic animal activity.

Inherent risks of domestic animal activities include, but shall not be limited to:

- (1) The propensity of a domestic animal to behave in ways i.e., running, bucking, biting, kicking, shying, stumbling, rearing, falling or stepping on, that may result in an injury, harm or death to persons on or around them.
- (2) The unpredictability of a domestic animal's reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement and unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals.
- (3) Certain hazards such as surface and subsurface conditions.
- (4) Collisions with other domestic animals or objects.
- (5) The potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner than may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the domestic animal or not acting within such participant's ability.

The undersigned releases South Central Stock Horse Association from all liability while participating in all horse related activities.
